THE ARTICLE

Spain legalizes same sex marriage

BNE: Spain has passed a new law to legalize same sex marriages. It becomes the fourth country to do so after Belgium, Canada and the Netherlands. The new law is very popular with the Spanish people: around 70 per cent of Spaniards support legalizing gay marriage. However, the Catholic Church is very angry that the law was passed. It tried very hard to block the legalizing of same sex marriages. The new law gives homosexual partners the same status as heterosexual ones. They will soon be able to adopt children and have inheritance rights.

The vote in the 350-seat Spanish Congress passed smoothly. Spain's Prime Minister Jose Luis Rodriguez Zapatero sponsored the law. Supporters of the bill were overjoyed when they heard the news. They happily hugged and kissed each other outside the Congress building, while some cried with happiness. Fernando Martinez was smiling from ear to ear. He said: "The unfairness has come to an end. Society, at last, accepts us for who we are. We are normal people who want to lead normal lives." The first marriages of gay couples will begin on July 15.

WARM-UPS

1. MARRIAGE: In pairs / groups, make a list of all of the advantages of getting married. Change partners and compare your lists. When you have finished, talk about whether same sex couples should be allowed to get married. Should they be able to experience each of the advantages on your list - the same as in marriages between men and women? Take a class vote on whether same sex marriages should be legalized in your country.

2. CHAT: In pairs / groups, decide which of these topics or words are most interesting and which are most boring.

Spain / same sex marriages / public opinion / the Catholic Church / heterosexual people / adopting children / hugs and kisses / gay rights / normal people

Have a chat about the topics you liked. For more conversation, change topics and partners frequently.

3. HOMOSEXUAL: Spend one minute writing down all of the different words you associate with the word "homosexual". Share your words with your partner(s) and talk about them. Together, put the words into different categories.

4. TWO-MINUTE GAY DEBATES: With a partner, take part in these fun 2-minute debates. Students A strongly believe in the opinions on the left, Students B support the opinions on the right. Change partners often.

- a. Gay people are not normal. vs. Gay people are as normal as anyone else.
- b. Homosexuality is a sin against God. vs. That's 2,000-year-old nonsense.
- c. Same sex marriage is totally natural. vs. Marriage is between men and women.
- d. Gay partners are loving parents. vs. Children need a mother and a father.
- e. Society isn't ready for same sex marriage. vs. This is the 21st century.
- f. Inequality against gay couples must end now. vs. It can never end.
- g. Gay people should never kiss in public. vs. Don't be so ridiculous.
- h. Gay people should not be allowed to join the army. vs. Gay people can fight.

5. SAME SEX SOCIETY: In pairs / groups, talk about which of these things are "OK" for same sex partners to do in your society.

- Get married
- Kiss in public
- Adopt children
- Hold hands in public
- Live together
- Tell people they are a gay couple
- Wear matching clothes
- Join the army together
- Inherit property
- Other

SPEAKING

ROLE PLAY: This role play is to discuss whether or not same sex marriages should become law. Team up with classmates who have the same role as you. Develop your roles and discuss ideas and “strategies” before the role play begins.

Introduce yourself to the other role players before the role play begins.

Role A

You have been with your same sex partner for ten years. You want to stay with your partner for the rest of your life. You have bought a house together. You want children. When you die, you want all of your money to go to your partner. You believe the Bible and other holy books are out of date.

Role B

You are a top church official. You believe marriage is between a man and a woman only. You believe there can be no such thing as a marriage between a man and a man or a woman and a woman. You think same sex marriages will damage children’s young minds. The holy books say homosexuality is a sin.

Role C

You are the owner of a wedding planning company. You really hope same sex marriages become law in your country. It would be great for your business. You don’t believe in any God. You don’t think it’s important what it says in holy books. You think marriage between any two people is a wonderfully happy thing.

Role D

You are very upset. Your lover of ten years has just run off with another partner of the same sex. You didn’t know your partner was homosexual. You suddenly dislike homosexual people. You cannot accept same sex marriages because it might mean your ex-partner might get married to his / her new love.

Change roles and repeat the role play. Comment in groups about the differences between the two role plays.

In pairs / groups, discuss whether you really believe in what you said while you were in your roles.
