Bratislava Xmas market sees bumper crowds

This year’s annual Christmas market in Bratislava, Slovakia, has opened. The first week saw bumper crowds attend. The historical old town square bustles with people jostling to buy the various Christmas goodies on sale. These range from woollen hats and scarves to decorative candles and Bratislava T-shirts.

At night, the place heaves with partygoers all eager to enjoy the festive spirit that Xmas brings. Decorative stalls sell hot red or white wine and traditional foods like pork and chicken burgers. There is also the more unusual black poppy pancakes or goose fat and raw onion that is spread on sliced bread.

Tourists from the UK flock to Slovakia’s capital using cheap airlines like Easyjet and Ryanair. Central Europe is increasingly becoming the new, cheap ‘in’ place to visit. It attracts many partygoers from England, who come to participate in single-sex, pre-wedding parties. These celebrations, “stag” nights for the groom and his male friends; “hen” nights for the bride-to-be and her female companions, are big revenue earners for Bratislava.

A downside for locals again this Christmas is Bratislava’s outdoor plastic ice rink. The fake “Winter Wonderland” ice rink in the downtown area is a cost cutting exercise of the city mayor. However, the plastic ice cuts no ice with the locals. Lifelong enthusiasts of the old ice rink have stayed away en mass. Sadly the frozen ice rink is now melting away from peoples’ minds.
START

1. DICTATION: The teacher will read to you slowly and clearly the first half of the first paragraph, repeating passages where necessary. Students will write down the speech. The teacher will repeat the passage slowly again.

Self correct your work. Be honest with yourself on the number of errors. Advise the teacher of your total no of errors. Less than 5 is very good. 10 are acceptable. Any more is room for improvement! More than 20 - we need to do some work!

2. CHRISTMAS MARKETS: Walk around the class and find out what people know about Christmas markets. Share your findings with new partners / the class.

3. READING: Get students to read the passage aloud. Swap readers every paragraph.

4. VOCABULARY: Students circle any words you do not understand. In groups, pool unknown words and use dictionaries to find their meanings.

5. CHAT: In pairs / groups, decide which of these topics or words from the article are most interesting (circle) and which are most boring (underline).

Bratislava / Xmas markets / Prague / bumper crowds / Slovakia / parties / cheap airlines / candles / scarves & woollen hats / hot wine / ice rinks / Vienna

Have a chat about the topics you liked. For more conversation, change topics and partners frequently

6. QUICK DEBATE: Student A thinks Bratislava is a better place to visit than Prague. Student B thinks Prague is better to visit than Bratislava. Debate this with your partner.

7. CHRISTMAS MARKETS: Name ten things you would buy at a Christmas market.

2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.
8. ROLE PLAY: SPEAKING 1: BRATISLAVA CHRISTMAS MARKET.

In pairs, imagine you are at a Christmas market.

Student(s) A is/are on a Christmas shopping trip. You would like to buy some local souvenirs to take home for your family and friends.

Student(s) B is/are Christmas market stallholder(s).

Activity: Student(s) A visit various stalls (run by student B), seeing what is for sale. Buy some gifts. Move round to other stallholders (students B). Try the stalls selling Xmas local drinks or food.

Happy Christmas shopping!

The teacher will select some students to see what they bought.

9. QUICK DEBATE: Students A believe plastic ice rinks are better than ice rinks with real ice. Students B believe they aren’t - that real ice is better. Debate this with your partners. Change partners often.

10. ONE MINUTE: Spend one minute writing down all of the different words you associate with the words Christmas market. Share your words with your partner(s) and talk about them. Together, put the words into different categories.

11. FIVE MINUTES: Choose six of these words. Write three sentences using two words in each. Try to associate them with Christmas market. Discuss with your partner. Spend five minutes on this exercise.

Note this exercise can be adapted to allow more 'words' you have written down to be included in each sentence etc.
13. ROLE PLAY: SPEAKING 2: ICE RINK

‘Exclusive’ TV interview with the old town mayor of Bratislava!

Student A. Imagine you are a TA3 (the local Slovak TV news station) television news reporter. You have an ‘exclusive’ interview with the mayor of the historic old town of Bratislava. Prepare five questions you want to ask the mayor about the controversial plastic ice rink. Consider why the ice rink is back yet no one goes on it.

Student B. You are the mayor of the historical old town in Bratislava. (Choose whether you are the former or new mayor!) Think of five things (write them down) you want to mention to the country/world about your decision to replace the original ice with plastic for the second year running. Think about what you intend to do in the future.

Role play: Student A asks Student B (the mayor) your questions. Listen to the Mayor’s response. Argue with him/her.

The teacher will select some students to role play their situations in front of the class.

14. SENTENCE STARTERS: With your partner(s), finish these sentence starters. Change partner(s) and talk about the sentences you made.

a. The Christmas market _____________________________________________

b. TA3 reported____________________________________________________

c. Tourists visiting _________________________________________________

d. In an interview __________________________________________________

e. Candles __________________________________________________________
