THE READING

From <https://breakingnewsenglish.com/1801/180114-vulgar-language-4.html>

Donald Trump has reportedly made racial comments about Haiti, El Salvador and African countries. In an immigration meeting, he asked why the US let people from "sh*thole countries" in. He also reportedly said: "We need more people from Norway." A Republican described Trump's words as "hate filled...and racist". The White House did not deny that Trump made the remarks. It said: "President Trump will always fight for the American people."

People worldwide are angry at President Trump's alleged comments. Republican Mia Love said he had to apologize. The UN called the comments "shocking" and "racist". Haiti's ambassador to the US stated: "The President was either misinformed or mis-educated about Haiti." President Trump denied making the comments. He tweeted: "Never said anything derogatory about Haitians....I have a wonderful relationship with Haitians."
