

Breaking News English.com

Prince Harry not allowed to stay at Buckingham Palace – 9th July 2026

Level 0

Prince Harry cannot stay at Buckingham Palace while he is in the U.K. Harry was going to visit the U.K. with his wife. However, he didn't bring her because the U.K. would not pay for their protection. Harry said he would not stay at the palace without his wife. He then changed his mind, but the palace said it was too late.

Newspapers are full of stories about Harry and his family. Relations worsened after he moved to California in 2020. Harry later made a Netflix documentary and wrote a book. These two things made relations with his brother Prince William worse. King Charles is sad. He wants to see his grandchildren.

Level 1

Prince Harry cannot stay at Buckingham Palace while he is in the U.K. This is because he missed a deadline to tell the palace about his plans. Harry was going to visit the U.K. with his wife and children. However, he didn't bring his family because the U.K. would not pay for police protection. Harry decided not to stay at the palace if his family could not visit with him. He then changed his mind. However, the palace said his change of plan was too late.

Newspapers are full of stories about the relationship between Harry and his family. Relations have not been good since 2020. That is when he moved to California. He left to protect his family from the press. In 2022, Harry released a Netflix documentary. A year later, his book "Spare" was published. The two things made relations with his brother Prince William worse. King Charles is sad. He wants to see his grandchildren.

Level 2

Prince Harry is not allowed to stay at Buckingham Palace while he is in the U.K. this week. This is because Harry missed a deadline to tell the palace of his plans. Harry was going to visit the U.K. with his wife Meghan and their two children. However, the prince decided not to bring his family because the U.K. would not pay for police protection for them. News reports say Harry decided not to stay at the palace if his family could not visit with him. He then changed his mind. He said he would stay alone. The palace said his change of plan was too late.

Newspapers are full of stories about the relationship between Harry and his family. Relations have not been good since 2020. That is when Harry stopped working as a royal. He left the U.K. and moved to California. He wanted to protect his family from the press. In 2022, Harry and Meghan released a Netflix documentary. This criticized the royal family and the media. It led to bad blood between Harry and his family. His book "Spare" was published in 2023. This made relations with his brother Prince William worse. King Charles is sad because he can't see his grandchildren.

Level 3

Britain's Prince Harry has been told he will not be allowed to stay at Buckingham Palace while he is in the U.K. this week. This is despite Harry being a member of the British royal family. BBC News reported that Harry missed a deadline to tell the palace of his plans. Harry was due to visit the U.K. with his wife Meghan and their two children, Prince Archie and Princess Lilibet. However, the prince decided not to bring his family because the British government would not pay for police protection for them. News reports say Harry decided not to stay at the palace if his family could not visit the U.K. He then changed his mind and said he would stay alone. The palace said his change of plan was too late.

Newspapers in the U.K. are now full of stories about the relationship between Harry and the royals. Relations have not been good since early 2020. That is when Harry stepped down as a working royal. He left the U.K. and moved to California. He said he wanted to protect his young family from the press. In December 2022, Harry and Meghan released their Netflix documentary "Harry & Meghan". This criticized the royal family and the media in the U.K. It led to more bad blood between Harry and his family. His memoir "Spare" was published in early 2023. This worsened relations with his brother Prince William. Britain's King Charles is said to be sad about not being able to see his grandchildren.